

Most Premature Babies PSP

Identify priorities about the Most Premature Babies (Initial Survey) respondents, including adults with lived experience, parents and healthcare professional completed an initial survey to identify priority areas for research.

311

138

out-of-scope questions removed

Summary Question Analysis & Evidence Check

706

questions summary questions were within scope of the project. The questions were grouped together into key themes, which were then used to form a final list of summary questions.

1

answered question removed

Interim Prioritisation (Shortlisting Survey)

459

respondents completed the second survey to help narrow the 80 summary questions into a research priority shortlist.

Prioritisation Workshops

30

participants of diverse backgrounds met over 2 virtual sessions to decide by consensus the Top 10 unanswered research priorities in the most premature babies.