

10:00	Welcome	Marian Knight
Session 1: Overarching themes		Chair: Marian Knight
10:05	The women who died in the UK 2021-23	Allison Felker
10:20	The women who died in Ireland	Edel Manning (MDE Ireland)
10:25	Improving and implementing early warning scores for maternity	Tony Kelly
10:35	Maternal programme updates: online surveillance and assessor training	Rachel Smith
10:40	Visualising perinatal data: the Real Time Data Monitoring (RTDM) Tool	Ian Gallimore
10:45	Q&A
11:00	Break (15 minutes)
Session 2: Improving care for women with multiple disadvantages and mental health problems		Chair: Sara Kenyon
11:15	Supporting mothers and empowering women to reduce inequalities: Messages for the care of women with social care involvement Messages for the care of Black mothers	Kirsty Kitchen (Birth Companions) and Kaat De Backer (King's College London) Tinueke Awe and Clotilde Abe (Five X More)
11:30	The importance of multi-agency working for women with mental health and social complexities: Social complexities and safeguarding Mental health Birth trauma and critical illness	Anita Banerjee and Sophie Russell Andrew Cairns Steve Cantellow
12:00	Reducing barriers in Perinatal Mental Health services	Andrew Cairns

12:15	Listening to women and families: messages from the Maternal Mental Health Alliance	Karen Middleton
12:25	Q&A
12:45	Break (30 minutes)
Session 3: General practice, hypertensive disorders of pregnancy and cardiac disease		Chair: Roshni Patel
13:15	Caring for women outside of maternity care – lessons from general practitioners and ambulance services: Lessons from general practitioners Lessons from ambulance services	Becky MacGregor Camella Main and Steph Heys
13:30	Lessons for the prevention and treatment of hypertensive disorders	Joanna Girling
13:45	Lessons on cardiovascular care	Rachael James
14:00	Supporting women with pre-eclampsia: messages from Action on Pre-eclampsia	Marcus Green
14:10	Q&A
14:30	Break (15 minutes)
Session 4: Policy and practice		Chair: Marian Knight
14:45	Actions across the devolved nations to address maternal mortality and morbidity	Antony Nicoll and Justine Craig (Scottish Government), Karen Jewell (Welsh Government), Kate Duhig (NHS England)
15:15	Q&A
15:30	Sum up and close	Marian Knight