

NPEU - 45th Anniversary

Thursday, 28th September 2023

NPEU

45TH ANNIVERSARY

1978 - 2023

Leading the way in maternal and newborn health

8.45 - 10.00	Registration
10.00 - 10.05	Welcome
10.05 - 10.20	Introduction (Marian Knight)
10.20 - 11.10	LISTEN	Chair: Professor Fiona Alderdice
	Listening deep and listening wide (Dr Jenny McLeish)
	The Listening Series: Increasing Diversity in Parent, Patient and Public Involvement (Charlotte Bevan & Harriet Williams)
	Listening to women and midwives - producing evidence to inform midwifery practice (Associate Professor Rachel Rowe)
11.10 - 11.40	Coffee
11.40 - 13.00	PREVENT & PROTECT	Chair: Associate Professor Manisha Nair
	MBRRACE - inequalities in pregnancy loss and newborn death (Professor Elizabeth Draper)
	Trials preventing adverse outcomes for babies (Professor Chris Gale)
	Ethnic inequities in preventive care for children - enabling provision and access (Claire Zhang)
	Adverse perinatal outcomes associated with maternal HIV infection and antiretroviral therapy (Dr Joris Hemelaar)
	Perinatal mental health: global perspectives (Dr Gracia Fellmeth)
13.00 - 14.00	Lunch (NPEU group photograph)
14.00 - 14.45	PANEL DISCUSSION	Moderator: Professor Marian Knight
	Tackling the big research questions in maternal and newborn health and care - what next?
	Panel:
	Professor Manu Vatish	Professor Barbara Casadei
	Dr Olufemi T Oladapo	Professor Ben Stenson
	Professor Krina Zondervan

14.45 – 15.45	INNOVATE	Chair: Associate Professor Charles Roehr
	Transforming the horizon: Development of a Perinatal Platform (Pollyanna Hardy)
	Using preferences to guide innovation assessing outcomes of children with a surgical condition (Associate Professor Oliver Rivero-Arias)
	The health of children born after fertility treatment in England: evidence from the PEARL record linkage study (Associate Professor Claire Carson)
	Preparing for maternal health research in future emergencies: What do we need? (Professor Marian Knight & Dr Abera Kenay Tura)
15.45 – 16.05	Coffee
16.05 – 16.50	TRANSLATE	Chair: Professor Maria Quigley
	Insights from the EXPRESS trial (Dr Ilana Levene)
	MaathRI FoCUS: bringing cardiac problems in pregnancy into focus (Associate Professor Manisha Nair & Leandros Tsiotos)
	Celebrating NPEU's impact over 45 years (Professor Marian Knight)
16.50 – 17.20	KEYNOTE
	Research focus for maternal and perinatal health; Dr Olufemi T Oladapo, World Health Organisation
17.20 – 17.30	Closing remarks
17.30 onwards	Drinks reception

